divide themselves by lot into three classes, the first class to consists of three members, to serve for three years; the second class to consist of three members, to serve for two years; the third class to consist of three members, to serve for one year. At each annual election thereafter three members shall be elected to serve for three years, and the retiring members shall not be eligible for renomination or election for the space of one year. In case of a vacancy occurring in the Committee other than by expiration of time of service, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the Committee until the next annual election, when the remainder of the unexpired term, if any, shall be filled by election as in other cases.

Sec. 3. The President shall, at least thirty days before the annual meeting, appoint a committee of five members, not more than two of whom shall be officers of the Club, and the said committee shall nominate candidates for vacancies about to occur by the expiration of the terms of Governors. Such nominations shall be posted by the said committee upon the bulletin board of the Club at least twenty days before said election. Any member may nominate other candidates for the same offices, but the names of all such candidates shall be posted upon the bulletin board at least ten days before the said election, and no person shall be eligible to the office of Governor unless he shall have been nominated and posted as aforesaid.

Independent
Nominations

The Secretary of the Club shall cause ballots to be printed containing all the names so posted, and shall furnish the same to the members of the Club at the opening of the meeting at which the election is to take place.

Committee

inspectors of election, who shall receive and canvass the ballots and certify the results to the Secretary. The polls shall remain open for two hours.

Adjourned
Election

Sec. 6. In case the certificate of the inspectors shows that all the vacancies on the Governing Committee have not been filled at the election, the meeting shall be adjourned for two weeks, at which adjourned meeting the election to fill those vacancies shall proceed as hereinbefore provided.

Attendance
at Meetings of Governing
Committee

Sec. 7. Any member of the Governing Committee who shall absent himself for three consecutive regular meetings, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do from the Committee, or shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence satisfactory to every member of the Committee present, shall cease to be a member of the Committee.

III

POWERS OF THE GOVERNING COMMITTEE

Section I. The Governing Committee is authorized:

Election
of Officers

I. To elect annually from its own body a President, Vice-President and Secretary of the Club, and to elect a Treasurer, who may or may not be a member of its own body, all of whom shall hold office until the first Monday of the succeeding December, or until their successors are elected.

2. To appoint a House Committee of three, whose duty it shall be, subject to the direction and control of the Governing Committee, to direct and manage the affairs of the Club, and to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members, reporting monthly to the Governing Committee.

Appointment
of House
Committee

3. To admit members, and to expel or suspend them by ballot, two adverse votes excluding, and a two-third vote of the Governing Committee expelling or suspending.

5. To make rules for the use of the Club by the members, and for their conduct in the Club House.

House
Rules

6. To fix penalties for the violation of the rules, and to enforce the same.

Penalties

7. To remit penalties for offenses against the rules, and for accidental violations of the by-laws.

Remission of Penalties

Expulsion

8. To put an end to membership for any conduct of a member not in violation of the by-laws or the rules, but improper and prejudicial to the Club.

Special Meetings

9. To call special meetings of the Club to consider a specific subject.

Rules

10. To make rules for their own government, and to fix and enforce penalties for the violation of such rules.

IV*DUTY OF OFFICERS*President and
Vice-President

Section 1. The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Governing Committee. In the event of their absence, a meeting of the Club or of the Governing Committee may elect its presiding officer.

Treasurer
and Secretary

The Treasurer shall keep the accounts of the Club and report thereon to the Governing Committee monthly, and give a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, or in such further sum as may be required by the Governing Committee, the sureties thereon to be approved by said Committee. He shall receive a salary which shall be fixed by resolution of the Governing Committee, the amount of which may be changed from time to time by resolution of said Committee, which salary shall be in full compensation for his services and he shall receive no other compensation or emolument whatsoever. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Club, sign guests' cards and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Governing Committee.

V.

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The number of resident members, exclusive of officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, shall not exceed two hundred and fifty. Adult male residents in the United States may become members upon election by the Governing Committee, and payment of the entrance fee and yearly dues. If such payment is not made within thirty days after notice of election shall have been given to the candidate, the election shall be void.	Limitation of Membership
Sec. 2. Members may be either resident or non-resident, but no person residing within twenty miles of the city of Harrisburg shall be a non-resident member, nor	Payment of Entrance Fee and Dues upon Election  Resident and Non-resident shall such non-resident member have the right of voting: Provided, however, That persons temporarily resident or doing business in the city may, at the discretion of the Governing Committee, be elected as non-resident members; and, Provided further, That any non-resident member who shall become a permanent resident within the limits above prescribed, shall thereby become a resident member, and if, at the time of his becoming such resident, an entrance fee is payable by candidates for resident membership, shall pay an additional entrance fee of thirty dollars. Resident members ceasing to reside within said limits may be transferred to the non-resident list, without the payment of the entrance fee required to be paid by candidates for non-resident membership.

Candidates for Membership

Sec. 3. Candidates for membership must be proposed and seconded by two members, not members of the Governing Committee, in their own handwriting, in a book to be kept for that purpose, at least ten days prior to a meeting of the Governing Committee, and their names must be posted on the bulletin board in the Club House for the same length of time, but the name of no candidate for non-resident membership shall be posted, nor shall any action be taken by the Governing Committee upon his candidacy, unless the entrance fee shall first have been deposited with the Treasurer of the Club. A list of the names of all candidates shall be sent to each member of the Governing Committee prior to the meetings of said committee.

The Governing Committee shall not ballot on the admission of any candidate for resident membership unless such candidate is personally known by, or has been introduced to, at least one member of said Committee, nor shall said Committee ballot on the admission of any candidate for non-resident membership unless there shall have been filed with the Secretary of the Club a letter signed by the proposer or seconder of such candidate, or both, setting forth his qualifications for membership.

Conditions Precedent to Balloting

A second ballot upon the election of a proposed member shall be taken at any time before the adjournment of a meeting, upon the motion of a single member of the Governing Committee; but after the meeting a rejected candidate shall not, within six months, be again balloted for.

Second Ballot

Names
Laid
Over

Candidates whose names shall have been laid over at two consecutive meetings shall not be again balloted for until after the names succeeding theirs on the list shall have been elected or rejected. Any person having resigned from the Club and being again proposed for membership shall be balloted for before any other candidate.

Former Members

Resignations

Sec. 4. All resignations shall be made in writing, and served upon the Secretary.

No resignation shall be received from any member in arrears to the Club.

All resignations must be presented before the first day of November, or the first day of May, following; otherwise the member shall be held liable for the dues of the following six months.

Upon the resignation, death or dismissal from the Club of any member thereof, his membership, and all rights acquired under it, shall be thereupon and thereby terminated and ended, and all the interest in the property of the Club of any person ceasing to be a member shall revert to and be vested in the Club.

IV

ARMY AND NAVY LIST

Section 1. Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States may become visitors for six months, with the privilege of renewals for like periods, through election by the Governing Committee and paying the dues of non-resident members; such election to be governed by the same rules as the election of members.
